Beneficiary's Instructions for Montana Schedule K-1

General Instructions

The Montana Schedule K-1 is required to be provided to all beneficiaries. Parts 1 and 2 are completed for all beneficiaries. Parts 3 and 5 are completed for all beneficiaries only if the beneficiaries have applicable information for these parts. Part 4 applies to nonresident beneficiaries only.

Purpose of Montana Schedule K-1

Montana Schedule K-1 shows information about your share of income, gains, losses, deductions, credits and other items from an estate or trust. If applicable, your share of "Montana source income" is listed. You may need this information to complete the appropriate Montana tax return.

Partnership or corporation beneficiary. If you are a corporation, partnership, or a limited liability company treated like a corporation or partnership, the Montana Schedule K-1 shows your share of the estate's or trust's Montana statutory adjustments that may affect the preparation of your appropriate Montana tax return.

Resident individual, estate, or trust beneficiary. If you are a Montana resident individual, estate, or trust, you report to Montana your entire share of the estate's or trust's income, gains, losses and deductions included in your federal taxable income. The Montana Schedule K-1 shows your share of the estate's or trust's Montana statutory adjustments that may affect the preparation of your Montana tax return.

Nonresident individual, estate, or trust beneficiary. If you are a nonresident individual, estate, or trust, the amount of your distributed share of the estate's or trust's income, gains, losses and deductions having their source in Montana is used to determine your Montana tax liability. These items are shown in Part 4 of the Montana Schedule K-1. You need to file a Montana tax return to determine your tax liability for these items.

Amended Schedule K-1. If you received an amended Montana Schedule K-1 from the fiduciary, and you previously filed a Montana tax return, you need to file an amended Montana tax return to report the changes in income, gains, losses and deductions.

Part 3 – All Beneficiaries – Montana Adjustments

A-B. Montana Additions or Deductions

To compute Montana income taxable to beneficiaries, certain items have to be added to income or deducted from income. Any amounts listed are the beneficiary's distributive share of Montana additions and deductions from the corresponding lines on Schedules A and B. A detailed schedule is required to be included. The form shows a partial list. Transfer the amount(s) shown to the appropriate Montana tax return.

Part 4 – Nonresident Beneficiary's Share of Montana Source Income (Loss)

If you are a nonresident beneficiary, you will need this information when you file your Montana tax return. Corporations and pass-through entities may need this information to report their Montana source income. Your share of the estate's or trust's distributed Montana source income, gains, losses and other additions to income that you need to report on your Montana tax return are shown. Transfer these amounts to the appropriate Montana tax return.

Part 5 – Supplemental Information

Supplemental information which could result in adjustments to the Montana tax return is listed. Include the amount from this schedule on the appropriate Montana tax return.

Montana mineral royalty tax withheld. If the estate or trust received royalty payments subject to withholding and distributed the mineral royalty tax withheld to the beneficiary, the amount distributed to the beneficiary is listed. Transfer this amount to your Montana tax return.
